Area description	Portsmouth, NH is a historic seaport and popular tourist destination. It is located a short distance from Massachusetts and across the border from Maine. The Piscataqua River runs through the city. Portsmouth was once one of the United States' busiest ports and trading spots during the 19th century. Today, Portsmouth's beautiful waterfront location and charming historical buildings make it a top tourist destination. Portsmouth is located on the ocean, which acts as a natural air conditioner keeping temperatures at a comfortable level. Please pack clothes for cool weather to be safe.
